The repatriation of several thousand Soviet citizens from Shanghai has been followed by a reorganization of the Shanghai Soviet Community. The application form used in the recent registration differs from the previous form in that it asks questions concerning the relations of Soviet citizens with local American, British, and Chinese subjects and firms; it also contains a question for women regarding personal relations with American or British citizens. The names of all Soviet citizens maintaining any relationship with American or British personnel have been placed on a list for special screening by Vice Consul Chernonebov.
